I'm afraid we'll have to politely decline your request s – as a government agency, NIAA doesn't usually do media interviews.

Hi s22(, thanks for getting back to us. We did contact the Minister's office. The interview with NIAA would be with a different approach, more focused on the practical changes for Indigenous communities across Australia. The Minister focus on the political side of it. Thanks. s4

Hey s47,

Apologies for the delay - s47F

Here is a good place to start. See below a few, in date order, that I've found that have telly potential. Note there's an event "NAIDOC splash" in Alice today from 1-3pm (central time). Given its school holidays, organisers are expecting a solid turnout.

s47 at the risk of stating the obvious, these events are not necessarily open to media/filming. Best to check directly with event organisers.

Let me know if you'd like to line up a 2023 National NAIDOC Award winner, Hello!

Just touching base hoping to connect with a NAIDOC Media Rep?

Just keen to chat about some suggested events during the week that will have the biggest and best colour that I might be able to get a Sky News reporter along to?

Thanks and Kind Regards,
