Hi s22(1)

The grant controller has advanced that performance reporting remains the responsibility of RMLA so s47F should remain the recipient.

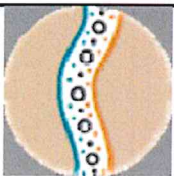

Best wishes

OFFICIAL

Good morning s22(1) and s22(1)

Regarding RMLA Performance Reporting due 15th January 2021.

I am currently confirming contact details and emails for all grant recipients for the upcoming reporting round.

The template for the Performance Reporting will be sent automatically to RMLA.

At this stage the recipient is s47F.

My question is do you want this to go to the Grant Controller or to stay with s47F ?

thanks

Best regards,

s22(1)

Dear s47F

As discussed earlier today, I'm writing to you regarding the National Indigenous Australians Agency's (the Agency) compliance review (Review) of Role Models and Leaders Australia Ltd (RMLA). As you are aware, the Agency undertook a Review to establish RMLA's compliance with the requirements of the relevant funding agreements for activities funded under the Indigenous Advancement Strategy.

The Agency has considered RMLA's response to the findings and recommendations previously provided. Please see attached advice on the outcome and the actions required by RMLA to finalise the requirements of the Review.

If you would like to discuss this further, please do not hesitate to contact me on the details below.

Regards,

Hi s4

Just for your information, RMLA has just been advised that NIAA has finalised the Girls Academies funding round, and they were not successful in the process. Our Deputy CEO Blair Exell has contacted them to advise, with further advice to the other applicants to come shortly, then media etc will be published. FYI only at this stage until public announcements go out, but I expect you will hear from the organisation shortly if not already.

Please let me know if you have any concerns or need anything from us. We will be in contact to work through transition process and discuss further potentially this week, if not then then early in the new year.

Thanks
